

THE WORD OF GOD

Have you seen the glory of the Father's one and only
Filled with grace and truth
Have you been forgiven for the life that you've been living Far from the will of God

The Word of God came down and showed us how How to live with love
How to walk with God
Yes He gave you life with His sacrifice
There was no way until your price was paid

Though His light shines in the darkness
The Darkness cannot understand
The light of the world shines now in the darkness
The darkness cannot understand
So let Him shine in your heart, through your life
The darkness cannot understand

JOHN 3:16

God so loved the world that He gave His Son
So all who believe could have life

He did not come to condemn, He came to save
All who hear and believe Him are safe in His name
Life has come into the world, but do not be deceived
In order to receive it you must first believe That God so loved the world that He gave His Son
So all who believe could be saved

And though you fear the light and hate the truth
Still He's calling out to you
Though you fear the light and hate the truth
Still He's reaching out to you
Though you fear the light and hate the truth
Still He's crying out to you Saying, "Come to the light! Live the truth! I love you!"

COME WITH ME

Come with me
I just heard from the one who will save the world
He spoke to me. To me!
He said, "Drink from me, and receive your life,
I know your wrongs, I know where you're right
Now come and live the truth
It's what God wants from you."

He wants you to worship in spirit and truth
All you know, all you've done is wiped away by the Son
Yes, He loves you – you'll see
Come with me

Come with me
I just saw the Son of the living God
And He spoke to me. To me!
And this water of which He speaks can flow through us with endless reach
His mercy is for all who choose to hear His call

Come see the light of the world come down
He's back at the well
Where the water of life is going to bubble up and flow all over the world

THE WAY (REJOICE)

You poor in spirit, heaven is yours. Rejoice!

You who mourn, you will be comforted. Rejoice!
And you meek, who do not force your way
You own everything. Rejoice!

The Way has come. He will be our King!
Hear His heart of love beat for you and me

You starved for righteousness, you will be filled. Rejoice!
And you merciful, you will be shown mercy. Rejoice!
And you pure in heart, you will see God. Rejoice!

You who make peace will be called sons of God
You who suffer for right will see my kingdom
All you slandered and beaten because of me, rejoice!

Don't lose that which makes you mine.
You don't want to lose me
For through me you will light the world
So in all I say rejoice.

The Way has come. He will be our king!
See His heart of love bleed for you and me

YOUR VOICE REIGNS

You drew the stars and brought forth light, and with your word created life. Your word will bring life again.
Blind will see and mute will speak.
Dead will rise and lame will leap at your word – LIFE

Your voice reigns across the whole refrain
That all creation sings

No walls can confine you. No words can define you
And our rules do not apply Maker of the land and sea, what you will does come to be
If you will it, I can be clean

DON'T LET YOUR CHANCE GO BY

Here I am. You don't know me. I know you.
You can look all your life for the answers
The answer is near. The answer is here.

Don't let your chance go by – I'm here before you Take in these words of life and let them flow through you
I'm what you're looking for, if you can see it
And all these things I do are so you'll believe it Could it be? I hear you asking. Yes, I am He.

I can feed a thousand with a loaf of bread, heal the sick, raise the dead, and still you have questions

HE IS THE ONE

Look at them. Look at Him.
The whole world's gone after Him
He brought the man that He "raise from the dead"
These things that He's done, the words that He says
Can you see what they're doing?
Can you hear what they're saying?

They're saying He is the One.
The blessed one who comes in the name of the Lord
They're saying He is the King
The blessed King who's bringing the Kingdom of God

They're laying down palm branches – symbols of victory

Covering His path, an honor for the greatest king
It seems there's nothing can stop Him now
But He's riding a donkey – a symbol of peace
I don't understand, we expected a mighty king riding a warhorse and leading the charge
Not a poor man drawing praise from the poor

He is the One!
Blessed is the One who comes in the name of the Lord!
He is the King!
The blessed King who's bringing the Kingdom of God!

What of Rome?
What will they say when they hear we've crowned a king today?

If this man dies it could save us all
Let one man die to save us all
Let this man die to save us all

LOVE NOT THE WORLD

Love not the world my friends
That which you love will define your ends
Turn your back on worry, it only leads to strife
And step into eternal life

Love not the world

Love not the world my friends
Remain in me. I will love you to the end.
Your money, your things, all will one day pass
But my kingdom and my love will last

Love peace, love truth, love each other as I've loved you
But love not the world. It will let you down.
Love not the world. My kingdom will always be around Love not the world. It will hate you and betray you.

OVERCOME

So now you know the truth.
Accept it and you accept me.
God will love you because you've accepted me and believed He sent me.

This truth is hard for the world
Accept it and they will hate you
Though they kill you, God will overcome!
God's love, His truth and His Kingdom will overcome

I pray that you will be one as I am one with the Father
Stay in this truth as you stay in this world.
Do not be of this world
My prayer is not for you alone.
I pray for all who believe – that they may also be one
Now watch me overcome!

He allowed the guards to take Him!
He stood many trials!
And while He had the power of Heaven and Earth at His fingertips he didn't offer so much as one word in His own defense!

KING OF RANSOM

Who would rescue me? Who would look in my direction?
Who would pay the price for such a wasted life?

A crown of thorns the King of Ransom wore

Mercy poured through His wounds that heal me
Nailed to His throne and lifted off the earth
The King of Ransom bought our second birth

Who could hold such love?
Who could give such an answer?
Who would rescue me after I held myself for ransom?

WHEN I FIRST BELIEVED

I can't forget the day that Mary came in and said the stone had been rolled away
Some of us ran down to the tomb to see if there was any truth in what she said
Me, I got there first and saw His burial clothes upon the floor
I came running back first thing
I didn't need to see more

I have seen enough to never let go of this love
From when I first believed

Mary stayed back, she had tears in her eyes
She thought that someone had stolen the body
She didn't know He was alive
But soon Mary came rushing back, shouting,
"I have seen the Lord, and just as sure as He died
He was standing before me asking me, 'woman, why do you cry?'"

There were those among us who didn't know what to believe, but soon Jesus entered the room wishing us peace.
One of us touch His sores and put a hand in His side
Then every disciple knew He was alive

FOLLOW ME

Put down your worries, put down your hate
Put down your fears that others will not relate to you Believe in your God, He will set you free
Follow me

Follow me. Come and see what life can be.

Put down possessions, put down what you've thought
Put down religion, it is not your God
I give you a love that the world cannot see
I am your savior if you follow me

YOUR KINGDOM ON EARTH

So many choices lie behind me
I'm all too often reaching for a dime
But if I worked a thousand years would I know why I'm here, or merely squander my time?

Take these sins from me, wipe my conscience clean
Give me one more chance to live your word
I will use my days for your better way
I will live for your Kingdom on Earth

If I had a million dollars, how much "happy" could I buy Or what might I break as I crawl fight and scrape through the arms that are reaching for a piece of that pie

When my time on Earth is done and I stand before the judge When all that's wasted burns away I hope that something will remain
